Nashville Health Officers Take Steps to Frevent Spread of Spanish "Fiu."
Nashville, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—As a result of the Spanish influenza epidemic which is raging here, health officials have widered all theaters and public places of ymusement closed until further notice. A movement is on foot to close the street railway transfer station. It is estimated that there are no less than 15,000 cases sow in Nashville alone, exclusive of the powder plant and the outlying districts if Davidson county. A number of adlitional deaths from pneumonia resulting room influenza have been reported since faturday. As a result of the closing of the theaters and other public places, it is thought that the work of the fournishute men for the fourth liberty loan will be hampered in not being able to reach-as many people directly with their message, but every effort is being made to push the sale of bonds and Nashville is confident of oversubscribing her quota despite adverse circumstances. It has not yet been decided to close the public schools. So far there has been no epidemic of Spanish influenza in any of Nashville's larger educational institutions.

FIRE ATTACKS ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL

s Threaten Magazine of T. N. T., but Firemen Soon Check Its Progress.

Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 7.—Fire of un-known origin which attacked a construc-tion camp here today seriously threatened the government-owned T. N. T. stored in one place.

Due to a strike of Rock Island firement

Due to a strike of Rock Island firement the danger of explosion and resultant loss of life and property was greatly enhanced. Fire fighting apparatus was hurried from surrounding cities, and at last reports the fire was considered under control, although possibility of further spread and serious explosions was admitted by fire chiefs. Volunteers were working valiantly to prevent a disaster such as that in New Jersey.

A strong wind was blowing and it is believed serious results may still occur. Loss estimated at noon today runs into the thousands of dollars.
